Lori Smith Presented with Wellness Leadership Award
HBGB Health Management and Wellness Consultant recognized at Worksite Wellness Conference

(BURLINGTON, VT) – October, 2008 – At the recent Worksite Wellness Conference held in Burlington, Governor Jim Douglas presented Lori Smith of Hickok & Boardman Group Benefits (HBGB) with the individual Wellness Leadership Award. For fifteen years, Smith has helped Vermont businesses implement and evaluate worksite health management and wellness strategies.

“We’re very pleased that Lori was recognized for the work that she has done for Vermont companies in improving the health of employees and organizations,” said Michael Kilfoyle, HBGB’s Director of Marketing and Operations. “The award reflects Lori’s commitment to her field and her community and we look forward to Lori continuing her outstanding work.”

Smith serves as HBGB’s Health Management Consultant and helps clients improve the coordination of their health management and wellness initiatives with their overall benefit strategy, resulting in a more fully integrated approach in the areas of plan design, communication and measurement of success.
